

The Long Island Chapter of the American Society of Appraisers is proud to present ....

"How Attorneys Use Appraisers & Appraisals"

*with Herrick, Feinstein LLP,
One Gateway Center, Newark, New Jersey 07102*

Attorneys John A. Rogers, Jr., Andrew M. Grumet (Trusts and Estates; Not-for-Profit), Kenneth E. Kobylowski (Real Estate), Matthew Hawkins (Litigation) and Frank K. Lord, IV (Art Law) will discuss the use of appraisals in their specific areas of practice.

When: November 6, 2007

Where: National Art Club
15 Gramercy Park So
New York, NY 10003
(212) 477-2389

Time: 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM

Cost: $49 per person

RSVP: Joseph Ammirati, ASA, 516-364-3232, joe@goKLG.com

John A. Rogers, Jr. - John is a partner in the Corporate Department of Herrick, Feinstein LLP that boasts tremendous experience in all facets of the corporate practice more typical of the Wall Street mega-firms. The principal focus of John's practice is mergers and acquisitions and private placements for private equity funds and middle-market companies. John has extensive experience in securities offerings including high-yield debt offerings and CDO transactions. John's broad corporate experience includes venture capital financings, business formations, lending transactions, commercial agreements (including various forms of license agreements), settlement of commercial disputes and a wide variety of employment related matters.

Matthew Hawkins - Matt is a member of the 60+ attorney Litigation Department of Herrick, Feinstein LLP. Matt concentrates his practice on complex litigation. Matt has represented major corporate clients in highly visible matters in diverse fields, including product liability, environmental law and employment discrimination. He is regularly called upon to counsel clients on crisis management and prevention.

Kenneth Kobylowski - Ken is a member of Herrick, Feinstein LLP's preeminent Real Estate Group. Ken's practice focuses on a broad range of real estate and finance related issues. Ken represents numerous owners of real estate in a wide array of services, purchases, sales, leasing and financing. Steve also regularly represents lending institutions in real estate transactions, restructurings and workouts.

Andrew M. Grumet - Andrew's practice spans several different practice groups of Herrick, Feinstein LLP, including Tax, Trusts and Estates and Tax Exempt Organizations. Andrew concentrates his practice in tax law with an emphasis on personal tax planning and tax-exempt organizations, including trust and estate planning, probate administration, charitable giving and philanthropy.

Frank K. Lord IV - Frank is a member of the Art Law Group of Herrick Feinstein LLP, a renowned practice in art and cultural property law. Frank concentrates his practice in commercial art matters both in the litigation and transactional areas. Frank has been involved in several well-known and important litigations surrounding artwork and other cultural property.